

Honor Roll

(1997-2007)

---

In the last decade, we have received contributions and grants from 654 individuals and foundations in the amount of $1.5 million.

ASIAM is extremely grateful for the support received from those who have entrusted us with their charitable giving. Maintaining excellence in research and education depends on their generosity.

We are especially pleased to honor the following individuals and foundations for their gifts demonstrate a commitment to education and development of young investigators through innovation research. Without their support, our work could not take place.
